

COMING IN 2002!

THE CHANGING SPACE OF POWER

A HISTORY OF AMERICAN LEGAL INSTITUTIONS IN THEIR CONTEXTS

BY CORINNE LATHROP GILB

While focusing primarily on the history of American legal institutions and their relation to American political, economic and social structure, this book begins with a survey of legal institutions in Europe before the American colonies became a republic and ends with a look at the legal changes related to current globalization.

Among this author's many previous publications are Hidden Hierarchies: The Professions and Government and Toward Holistic History—the Odyssey of an Interdisciplinary Historian. She attended law school at the University of California at Berkeley and spent eight years as a research associate at that university's Center for the Study of Law and Society. Her Ph.D. is from Harvard. In addition to years of full-time university teaching, she has worked for local and state governments and traveled extensively. She is currently writing a book about the globalization of the American automotive industry.

atherton press, ltd.

3351 El Camino Real, Suite 245, Atherton, CA 94027

Phone: 650-369-4520

Fax: 650-364-5851